

Need assistance
paying your gas bill?
Help is available.

Columbia Gas[®]
A NiSource Company

If you're a customer struggling with winter heating bills now that winter weather is causing your furnace to run longer, help may be available through assistance programs and payment plans.

Assistance programs and payment plans are available to customers on a limited income, those facing special circumstances, or those who need to re-establish their gas service. At the first sign of trouble paying your gas bill, call Columbia Gas at 1-888-460-4332 or visit ColumbiaGasPA.com/assistanceprograms to explore your options.

If a family member, friend, or neighbor may be struggling with household budgets this winter, you can assure those you care about will stay warm in their home by spreading the word that help is available.

Did You Know?

Columbia Gas reminds its customers that half of their monthly bill is the cost of natural gas, which the Company passes directly to customers on a dollar-for-dollar basis, with no mark up or profit. The greatest opportunity for you to reduce your monthly bill is through weatherization and energy efficiency. For more information about Columbia's Energy Efficiency Programs, go to ColumbiaGasPA.com/ways-to-save.
